

Day one: 19 October 2022 – All online via virtual conference platform

9:00am	Opening karakia and introduction from MC: Matthew Gifford
9:15am	Keynote speaker: Tonga Minister for Foreign Affairs, Fekitamoeloa Katoa 'Utoikamanu
10:00am	Break
10:15am	Panel discussion on high-level strategies, key challenges, and Aotearoa New Zealand's role on the global stage (Panellists to be confirmed)
11:00am	Break
11:15am	Session delivered by the Pacific Islands Association of Non-Governmental Organizations (PIANGO): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation on the Blue Pacific Strategy from Executive Director of PIANGO, Emeline Siale Ilolahia • Panel presenting case studies from across the Pacific
1:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Breakout sessions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • StoneX: Minimising Financial Wastage: Uncovering the hidden costs of international payments • GOOD Travel & Massey University: Reimagining tourism in the Pacific • OSKY & Oxfam: Improving your website for greater public engagement • Rotary & MORDI: Locally-led partnerships: case study on the response to the Tonga volcano eruption
3:30pm	Break
3:45pm	Panel discussion on the role of civil society organisations in connecting local and global <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audrey Aumua, CEO, The Fred Hollows Foundation • Jo Spratt, Communications and Advocacy Director, Oxfam • Junior Ulu, Director Pacific Peoples Health & Covid in the Community • Peter Rudd, Executive Director (incoming), Council for International Development
4:50pm	Closing remarks and karakia
5:00pm	END

With thanks to our Platinum & Gold supporters

Day two: 20 October 2022 – All online and in-person from 3pm

11:00am	Opening karakia and introduction
11:05am	Keynote speaker: José Manuel Ramos-Horta - President of East Timor
12:00pm	Brianna Fruean , Activist and Environmental Advocate: reflections on youth climate activism in the Pacific and connecting with COP26
1:00pm	Break
From 1:45pm anyone with an in-person ticket will join us at Parliament. The sessions will be livestreamed to the online audience from 2:30pm
1:45pm	Arrival and registrations at the Banquet Hall, Parliament
2:30pm	Pacific Koloa Collective - Alofa Wahine: Women talk about Pacific Development (Panellists to be confirmed)
3:30pm	Tatou Tatou: Māori and Pacific leaders panel We will hear first-hand experiences from a panel of Māori and Pacific leaders who have been connecting throughout this year to explore collaboration and shared values. We will learn about their insights on the linkages between Te Ao Māori and Pacific values around development and localisation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Toleafoa Alfred Schuster, Independent Consultant • Richard Jeffries, Maori Development Consultant • Representative from the E-commerce & Finance sector group • Representative from the Digital/ ICT sector group and/ or the Women in Business sector group
4:30pm	Break
5:00pm	Address from Minister Nanaia Mahuta
5:30pm	Break and livestream ends
6:00pm	Dinner and drinks Entertainment at the dinner will be from the Cook Islands String Band

With thanks to our Platinum & Gold supporters