

CID Annual Conference and MFAT Hui

26 - 27 October 2021

New Ways to Work

Building stronger relationships and resilience

NOW ONLINE

REGISTER HERE

Day One: CID Annual Conference

The CID Conference on Day 1 brings together members and anyone interested in international development and aid, it will be hosted on Delegate Connect conference platform for an interactive and accessible online experience.

- MC: Malama T-Pole, co-host of TVNZ's flagship Pacific news show, Tagata Pasifika
- Keynote speakers:
 - Former PM Helen Clark
 - Cook Islands PM Mark Brown
- Keynote address: UK economist, Oxfam's Duncan Green in conversation with Jennifer Kalpokas Doen from Vanuatu and 'Balance of Power'
- Member sessions and roundtables include:
 - Oxfam Aotearoa 'Unblocked: Utilising Unrestricted Cash Transfers as a Vehicle for Livelihood Recovery in Vanuatu'
 - International SOS 'Deployment to the Pacific? Aid Sector travel challenges and responsibilities in the COVID-19 world'
 - ChildFund 'Restoring power: communities designing their futures from within'
 - Pacific Koloa Collective 'Alofa Pasifika: Pacific ways of understanding and working to build back better in the development sector'
 - FCG 'Localisation and International Development Technical Assistance'
 - Advocacy roundtable
 - Myanmar roundtable

Day Two: MFAT Hui – Online and by invite Only

The MFAT/NGO Hui on Day 2 brings together CID Member NGOs delivering NZ Aid Programme activities, and MFAT Pacific and Development Group staff.

Sessions will include panels, discussions and small group work

- Welcome from Jonathan Kings, Deputy Secretary Pacific and Development Group
- Keynote Ministerial Address to be confirmed
- Session 2: WHY – New Zealand's Relationship with the Pacific
- Session 3: WHAT – Resilience (Policy, Practice, Research)
- Session 4: HOW – Results
- MOVING FORWARD

Parliament Dinner POSTPONED until we can do it in person, a new date will be announced shortly

- Hosted by Minister Nanaia Mahuta
- Collaboration Award presented
- Photo competition winners announced

A full programme of events and timings will be made available in the week of 18 October, including the new date for Dinner.

We look forward to welcoming you!

Ngā mihi nui

